(ST. LOUIS, MO) – Congressman Russ Carnahan (MO-03) has repeatedly said that he believed InBev was under valuing the worth of the St. Louis based company Anheuser-Busch Inc., which is headquartered in Missouri's Third Congressional District, of which he represents.

“I said from the beginning, and continue to believe they are trying to buy this iconic American company on the cheap, utilizing strong foreign buying power. Besides underestimating AB's value I believe they have also underestimated the company's determination to protect itself, and rightly so.”
